Third Annual Thanksgiving Community Meal Set for Thursday, November 23

Manitowoc, Wisconsin (October 30, 2023) The Hunger Coalition of Manitowoc County will host their third annual Thanksgiving Community Meal on Thursday, November 23 in partnership with Hope Community Church, 4408 County Rd. B, Manitowoc. The meal is provided free of charge to Manitowoc County residents. All are welcome.

To reserve a meal, call United Way Manitowoc County's office at (920) 682-8888 by 4:00pm Wednesday, November 22. Only 250 meals available – first come, first served.

To-go meals are available for pickup at Hope Community Church between 10:30-11:30am. Dine-in meals will be served at the church from noon-1:30pm.

"The Thanksgiving Community Meal is a great way to give back and connect with others in the community," said Angelica Schmitt, Director of Impact Strategies for United Way Manitowoc County. "Whether you enjoy a delicious meal, volunteer to help or do both, this event will warm your heart this holiday season!"

The Hunger Coalition of Manitowoc County is a community-based collaborative under United Way Manitowoc County's Basic Needs initiative and is joined by The Salvation Army of Manitowoc County, Grow It Forward, UW-Madison Extension FoodWise, Manitowoc Public School District, and First Presbyterian Church. Others passionate about ending food insecurity are welcome to join the coalition at any time. To learn more, call Angelica Schmitt at (920) 682-8888.
