United Way’s Stuff the Bus Event Takes Place July 22

Manitowoc, Wisconsin (June 21, 2022) United Way Manitowoc County is partnering with Brandt Buses, Inc. on Friday, July 22, 8:00am-12:00noon for United Way’s brand-new Stuff the Bus event.

In support of area schools’ community closets, United Way is collecting essential supplies for youth. Examples of needed items include toiletries, clothing gift cards, non-perishable snacks, gloves/mittens, socks, etc. For the full list of schools and items, visit unitedwaymanitowoccounty.org and click on the Stuff the Bus banner.

“KAN Cool for School and other organizations do an amazing job getting traditional school supplies into students’ hands every year. In our conversations with area school districts, we saw a need for basic personal items,” stated Ashley Bender, United Way Manitowoc County Executive Director. “Identifying and working to fill gaps such as these aligns perfectly with our Basic Needs initiative.”

Donations should be dropped off at United Way’s main entrance at 21 E. Waldo Blvd., Manitowoc. United Way is located in the small business district on the corner of Waldo Blvd. and Maritime Dr. Staff and Brandt Buses will deliver the donations to schools across Manitowoc County immediately following the event.

Please contact United Way’s office at (920) 682-8888 if you have any questions.
